

I. Markiere die Formen des present progressive im Text.

I am looking out of the window. A lot of children are playing in the schoolyard. Five boys are playing football. Four girls are playing table-tennis. A boy and a girl are standing near a teacher. The boy and the girl are phoning. Two boys and a girl are sitting on a bench. They are having a look at their math books. Another girl is reading a magazine. Two boys are looking into a comic book. They are laughing. One girl is holding an English book. She is explaining something to another girl. Four boys are standing in a corner. They are talking. The boys are eating sweets. Another boy is showing a classmate his new smartwatch. A young boy is eating an apple. Next to him a young boy is drinking water. The boy is holding his lunchbox in the other hand. Two birds are flying through the air. A dog is running after a cat. Five boys are going to the cafeteria. Two teachers are talking to each other near the entrance of the cafeteria.

II. Schreibe die unten stehenden Sätze in verneinter Form auf.

I am looking out of the window. A lot of children are playing in the schoolyard. Five boys are playing football. Four girls are playing table-tennis. A boy and a girl are standing near a teacher. The boy and the girl are phoning. Two boys and a girl are sitting on a bench. They are having a look at their math books.

I am looking out of the window. -> I am not looking out of the window.

III. Stelle Fragen nach den rot unterstrichenen Satzteilen.

A girl is reading a magazine. Two boys are looking into a comic book. They are laughing. One girl is holding an English book. She is explaining something to another girl. Four boys are standing in a corner. They are talking. The boys are eating sweets. Another boy is showing a classmate his new smartwatch. A young boy is eating an apple. Next to him a young boy is drinking water.

1. What is a girl reading?
A girl is reading a magazine.
2. What are two boys looking into?
Two boys are looking into a comic book.

IV. Beantworte die unten stehenden Entscheidungsfragen (Ja-/Nein-Fragen) mit der richtigen Kurzantwort.

The boy is holding his lunchbox in the other hand. Two birds are flying through the air. A dog is running after a cat. Five boys are going to the cafeteria. Two teachers are talking to each other near the entrance of the cafeteria.

Is the boy holding his lunchbox in the other hand?

Are two birds sitting on the ground?

Is a cat running after a dog?

Are five boys going to the cafeteria?

Are two teachers talking to each other near the entrance of the cafeteria?

V. Male ein Bild zu dem Text unter Aufgabe IV.